

Lake Chelan Boat Club

Meeting Minutes

January 4th, 2010

Frantz called the meeting to order. Al Steele was not able to attend do to work requirements. The attendance for this meeting was about 20 members. Minutes from the past December meeting were not available for the January 4th meeting. No new members were present at this meeting.

Frantz noted that club dues are now due and members can pay online if they choose to. Treasurer numbers for the beginning of the year will be supplied under separate cover or presented at the next meeting in February.

The Commodores' Ball is scheduled for this Saturday, January 9th. The price is $25.00 per person. At this time nine members have signed up.

Jim and Dona Reinbold were voted in as new members to the club. It is important that they be notified as soon as possible.

There was an open discussion regarding the flag pole at Luceme as it is looking at bit weathered. Also discussed was the need to upgrade the radio at Luceme. The present radio is over 25 years old. The finger docks were brought up but no new information was available.

Meeting was adjoumed at 7:50 pm
